

SPANISH ENCOUNTERS & GRACES OF FRANCE

SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA

During the Middle Ages, Santiago de Compostela became the number one pilgrimage site outside of Rome. All of the European roads led there. Santiago's Cathedral is the holiest point of pilgrimage in this city. In the high altar rest the relics of St James. So many pilgrims have laid their hands on the pillar just inside the doorway to rest their weary bones that the stone has been left smooth and worn.

If any place has earned the distinction of being a true pilgrimage site, it is Santiago de Compostela. Almost every generation since the Middle Ages has journeyed there for healing, renewal, prayer, reparation and to fulfil a time-honoured tradition.
